- Rich has distributed the minutes of the first SDI Working Group meeting to all working group members and, based on follow-up phone conversations, believe they understand what is expected in the way of efforts on our behalf for the rest of this month. [REDACTED] and Rich nevertheless remain concerned about how to encourage the working group members to play an active role within their parent organizations in eliciting meaningful and positive responses. [REDACTED] has begun to contact key customers of SDI intelligence and Rich has been trying to keep tabs on the status of inputs to PPS, now a critical milestone in the preparation of a CIPC report. Nothing to report yet on the latter. In a brighter vein, STAP has provided us a copy of an excellent study they have prepared on some of the most important implications of SDI for the Intelligence Community. Rich anticipates that portions of it will be incorporated in our study.
